Item 8.01. Other Events.

On May 29, 2023, Spark Networks Inc. (the “Company”) and Lamark Media Group LLC (“Lamark”) entered into a Master Services Agreement and Statement of Work (the “Lamark Agreement”), pursuant to which Lamark will perform certain of the Company’s consulting, technology, outsourcing and other services to create performance marketing and/or advertising campaigns and execute recommendations (the “Services”).

The initial term of the Lamark Agreement will continue for the later of thirteen (13) months from the effective date thereof or the expiration of any outstanding statements of work (“Term”). The Term will not automatically renew; the parties may agree in writing to renew or extend the Lamark Agreement or any statements of work in writing on or before the expiration of the Term.

The Company will pay Lamark for the Services under the terms and rates specified in each statement of work.

The Lamark Agreement is non-exclusive and the Company is entitled to remove any of the Services from Lamark, subject to payment of certain charges related to the statements of work.

In connection with the Lamark Agreement and the Company’s previously announced plan to close its Berlin operations by January 2024, the Company has also provided notices of termination to 29 employees, representing approximately 12% of the Company’s employee base.
